

HOW TO APPLY

APPLICATION PROCEDURE

International students wishing to study face-to-face or a combination of this and online study can apply directly to the University through www.newcastle.edu.au/students/international.

You can also choose to use an official overseas representative, or agent, of the University. Please visit www.newcastle.edu.au/students/international/our-programs/how-to-apply/representative/ for a detailed list.

If you wish to study completely online from your home country, apply at www.gradschool.com.au/apply-online.

Before you get started

To ensure that the process goes smoothly for you, please be sure to complete the following steps before applying:

1. Review the program that you wish to apply for. Note the admission criteria, admission instructions, requirements and structure, and any additional information listed.
2. Review the program fees and costs.
3. Check whether your postgraduate program has a Semester or a Trimester closing date. Please view the application closing date as listed above.
4. If you are from a non-English-speaking background, you need to satisfy the University's English language requirements and ensure that you can provide evidence of your English proficiency if required.

You will be considered for entry based on criteria such as your undergraduate studies, and/or equivalent prior learning, and/or relevant work experience.

Stage 1

Applying for a place in a program

Decide on the specific program(s) you wish to study. You can then either apply online with our UniOffer tool (go to: www.newcastle.edu.au/students/international/our-programs/how-to-apply/) or you can complete the application form included in this publication. If you choose the paper-based application, please complete all relevant sections of the application form and attach certified copies of all academic transcripts and any other items you may wish to include. Send the completed application form directly to International Admissions at the University or to an official representative of the University in your country.

Stage 2

Your application is assessed

Once we've received your online or paper-based application, we will check that you have provided all the details and assess whether you meet the requirements for the proposed area of study, and whether there is a place available for you. We will do this as quickly as possible, but this can sometimes take a little while as the application may need to be reviewed by a number of people. You can assist by ensuring that you have answered all questions and provided all necessary information and documents to support your application.

Stage 3

Review your Letter of Offer

Successful applicants will receive from International Admissions, an offer of a place which will provide information on the tuition fees, health insurance fees, the date of commencement of the program of study and the refund policy. If an application is unsuccessful, applicants will receive an explanatory letter. Successful applicants will receive either an Unconditional or Conditional Letter of Offer. You must meet all conditions specified on your Letter of Offer prior to receiving your Confirmation of Enrolment (CoE).

Stage 4

Payment of fees

In order to accept the offer of a place in a program, you are required to pay a deposit in advance. The payment should be in the form of an international bank draft/cheque made payable to The University of Newcastle. You may also pay by Credit Card or Electronic Funds Transfer (EFT). For information on how to pay, please visit www.newcastle.edu.au/service/fees/ Please write your full name on the back of the bank draft/cheque.

The bank draft/ cheque can either be sent directly to International Admissions at the University or may be given to an official representative (agent) of the University in your country. Once payment has been received by the University, you will receive a Confirmation of Enrolment (CoE), which is required for completing your application for a student visa at the Overseas or Australian Visa Office in your country.

Stage 5

Applying for a student visa

In order to apply for a student visa at an Overseas or Australian Visa Office, you will need to obtain a student visa application form, either from the Australian Diplomatic Post or an official overseas representative of the University in your country.

You will need to complete all relevant sections of the student visa application form and attach and submit all relevant documentation and visa application fee. For further information visit the Department of Immigration and Citizenship's website at: www.immi.gov.au/students

Travelling to Australia and arranging accommodation in Newcastle or on the Central Coast (Ourimbah)

The University strongly suggests that you seek advice about booking an air ticket as soon as you receive your offer. Orientation week is one week prior to the commencement of semester/ trimester. You should organise your travel arrangements to ensure you attend. Decide on the type of accommodation you wish to have in Newcastle or on the Central Coast. Information regarding the many types of available accommodation together with key contact details will be provided with your offer letter.

Stage 7

Arriving in Newcastle or at the Central Coast (Ourimbah)

When you arrive in Sydney, you will need to transfer (either by air, rail or bus) to Newcastle or Ourimbah, depending on where you will be studying. Information on how to transfer from Sydney to Newcastle or Ourimbah will be provided with your offer letter.

Once you have arrived, you should visit the International Office on the Callaghan campus or the International Student Advisor on the Ourimbah campus as soon as you can. Staff will be able to assist you with opening a bank account, advice on the Orientation Program and where you should go for your enrolment session.

All international students are expected to participate in the University's Orientation Program which occurs one week before classes begin. An Orientation Program for newly arrived international students has been specifically designed and includes information on enrolment, campus facilities and associations, public transport, shopping and recreational activities, a guide to either Newcastle or Ourimbah and the Central Coast (whichever is applicable) and social functions. For more information on Orientation please see www.newcastle.edu.au/students/new/orientation/

POSTGRADUATE APPLICATION GUIDE

1. Course selection

Before completing the enclosed postgraduate application form you should visit the University website at: www.newcastle.edu.au/whatcan-istudy/ and decide on your program of study.

When deciding on your program of study and commencement semester consider whether you may need to undertake English language tuition. You can note your preferences for start dates and semesters in section 2 of the application form.

2. Admission requirements

Assessment for admission to the University is based on your academic qualifications and English proficiency. For postgraduate study you usually require an undergraduate degree equivalent to an Australian Bachelor degree in a relevant discipline. However, for some business and IT courses relevant work experience and an academic qualification will also be considered.

3. English proficiency

A list of qualifications that meet the University's English proficiency requirements can be found below, however, a more comprehensive list can be found on the University website at: www.newcastle.edu.au/policy/000104 It is strongly recommended that you review this policy before completing your application.

IELTS

International English Language Testing Score (IELTS) of 6.5 or higher with no individual subtest score less than 6.0 (except the following programs which requires an overall band score of 7.0 with no band less than 7.0; Medicine, medical Radiation Science, Midwifery, Nursing, Nutrition and Dietetics, Occupational Therapy, Oral Health, Podiatry, Physiotherapy, Speech Pathology) For more information on english language proficiency procedure please refer to www.newcastle.edu.au/policy/000866

TOEFL

American Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL) score of 550 or more (minimum score of 4.5 in the TWE) – paper based test. Internet based test (I-TOEFL) requires an overall score of 93, with no subset score below 21. For more information on entry requirements of specific programs please refer to www.newcastle.edu.au/policy/000104

4. Completing the application form

Complete the enclosed application form, once you have decided on your program of study. Ensure that your personal details are clear. The Australian Government does require us to keep your home country address on file so make sure these details are included even if you are using an education agent. If you are applying through an agent, all correspondence will be sent via your agent. Late applications may not be considered for entry until the next available intake.

5. Certified documents

All academic transcripts and certificates of completion attached to your application should be certified as true copies of the original. If your documents are not in English we will need officially translated versions as well as certified copies in the original language.

6. Advanced standing/credit

Consideration of applicants seeking advanced standing is on a case-by-case basis. In the event that advanced standing is granted, the number of units required to complete the degree requirements will be reduced and, consequently, students may need less time to complete their preferred program. If you are seeking advanced standing in your nominated program you should include with your application the course outline, subject descriptions, methods of assessment, contact hours, duration of the program and a list of text books should be from official educational institution publications or hand-outs.

7. Letter of offer

• Unconditional Offer

If you have provided all relevant certified documents, and met the University's academic and English proficiency requirements, the University will send you a letter of offer without any conditions for the next available session.

• Conditional Offer

The University may send you a conditional offer if you have not provided certified documents or evidence of English proficiency or are yet to complete your current course of study. Once you have met the requirements stipulated under "Conditions" in your offer letter, an unconditional offer will be forwarded to you.

• English Language Programs

If you do not meet the University's English Language requirements you will be offered an English language program at the University prior to commencement of your main program of study.
