Things grow when the conditions are right.
It’s true for industry, agriculture and it’s most certainly true for people. At Lincoln University, helping you grow is what we are all about. And we encourage you to do it your way, with diverse learning that fits your ambitions in an environment that allows you to flourish.

We partner you with industry to prepare you for the real world and to plant the seeds of a rewarding future. So when the time comes, you’re ready to go out there and grow the future for yourself and others. Welcome to Lincoln University. A place to grow.
Kia ora koutou.
Nau mai, haere mai, tauti mai.
Welcome to Te Whare Wānaka o Aoraki, where we are proud to help grow your future.

As the longest running agriculturally based university in the Southern Hemisphere, Lincoln University’s story begins with farming but it certainly doesn’t end there. As New Zealand’s economy has diversified so have we. What we are interested in growing is people.

Now more than ever, we are enabling our students to grow to meet urgent industry demands in areas such as food, fibre, sustainability, agribusiness and more.

At Lincoln, we offer great learning and growth through powerful applied research, the cultivation of deep industry collaborations, global connections and world-class learning environments and teaching.

As a Lincoln graduate you’ll arrive at your career globally connected, forward thinking and ready to shape tomorrow.

Lincoln is a safe haven that provides students with a wealth of opportunities to develop leading-edge skills here and in the real world. Just as importantly, you will become part of a thriving and inclusive student community, forging friendships that will last a lifetime.

It is my great pleasure to welcome you to Lincoln University and this exciting new chapter of your life.

We truly look forward to helping you grow.

Ngā mihi nui

Welcome to Canterbury.

Our campus is located in Lincoln township, a thriving village on the Canterbury Plains. Lincoln is small and friendly, boasting local pubs, great cafés and eateries, shops and even its own farmers and craft market.

The Canterbury region offers a plethora of attractions, activities and natural wonders, from snowy mountains and wide-open plains to the stunning coastline.

And when you feel like a weekend on the slopes, it’s less than two hours’ drive to the nearest ski field.

A place like no other

Welcome to a city fast becoming one of the world’s most modern and sustainable. Christchurch is fantastic for students, as it offers culture, energy and fun in spades.

Looking for adventure? Get out to the Port Hills and onto the ziplines, bike trails and chairlifts. Or maybe you’ve been hitting the books hard and earned some retail therapy.

Christchurch has more boutique stores than you can throw a designer t-shirt at.

And when you fancy hitting the town, there are new bars, clubs and restaurants everywhere. Wherever you are in this amazing region there’s so much to do and see, and it’s a great place for a student to call home.
Lincoln Campus

In the heart of New Zealand’s South Island is Lincoln University’s Te Waihora campus. 58 hectares of green and pleasant fields surround this historic yet modern campus. We pride ourselves on providing a safe, all-inclusive environment for a close-knit group of around 3,000 students, who come from more than 80 countries.

Great facilities are plentiful with advanced teaching spaces, a comprehensive library, leading-edge information technology laboratories with 24-hour access, eateries, a printery, world-class sporting facilities, a fully equipped fitness centre and even a travel agency.

The Lincoln campus is always changing, with a major redevelopment plan aimed at growing even stronger connections between students, staff and visitors. The plan builds on an environment that nurtures growth in all areas of development, including physical, emotional, intellectual, financial and societal. As well as making sure that our physical surroundings are in the best possible shape, we’re also constantly updating our online learning options, which help to enhance your understanding of course content.

This is the beating heart of one of the world’s highest ranked small universities and New Zealand’s best at harnessing the values of the land. And just like our students, Lincoln is changing and growing all the time.

Creating an environmentally sustainable future

At Lincoln University we’re deeply committed to helping shape a more sustainable future for our communities and the generations to come.

Protecting the environment, conserving resources and sustaining ecosystems are central tenants in our teaching, and our research strives to understand and enhance the relationships between our land, the food and experiences created from it and the ecosystems within it.

We want to tread lightly on the earth, and we have set ambitious sustainability targets for our campus – in energy conservation, greenhouse gas emission reduction, protection of native biodiversity, water management and resource recovery.

Our vision is to make Lincoln University an exemplar of sustainable practices, and our extensive community of current and former students is actively engaged in developing solutions for the grand challenges facing the land-based sectors.

Everyone in the Lincoln whānau, whether staff, students or alumni, plays their part in the university’s environmental sustainability credentials – guided, encouraged and monitored by our Sustainability Action Group for the Environment (SAGE) in partnership with the Lincoln University Students’ Association (LUSA) and student club Lincoln Environmental Sustainability Society (LESS).

Lincoln University is the only New Zealand university to achieve a ranking on the UI Green Metric World University Rankings and we were also the first university in Aotearoa to declare support for the 2019 School Strike for Climate, with our students leading a 21km hikoi to Cathedral Square.

At Lincoln, our goal is to be carbon neutral by 2030 and in late 2020 the NZ Government endorsed our approach through a $4.5 million funding boost to convert our heating network to 100% electricity. We are the only New Zealand university with a commercial-scale solar power generating capability, with two major roof-mounted solar installations already in commission and further arrays, including a ground-mounted solar farm, coming on stream in the next two years.

Throughout the next decade Lincoln University’s planned development programme will put environmental sustainability at the very heart of our campus, with the construction of a network of fit-for-future carbon-neutral teaching, research and recreation spaces, supported by 100% renewable infrastructure and wrapped within a vibrant and biodiverse ecosystem.

We see sustainability as non-negotiable. To us, business as usual is no longer an option. Instead, we see restoration of our land and environment as the imperative for our future, and we’re proud to be equipping new generations of leaders with the knowledge and inspiration needed to build that better future.

A place to grow since 1878
Life's good at Lincoln

When you're doing it right, there's much more to university than just lectures and study. Especially if you're doing it at Lincoln. It's a green and vibrant village full of like-minded people. There's always something to get involved in and the vibe is always friendly.

Join the club.
Looking for great ways to meet new people, broaden your horizons and have some fun? Join a club. Lincoln University Students' Association (LUSA) and the Rec Centre oversee all of the university's clubs and organisations. We can fill you in on what's out there or even help you set up your own club.

LUSA. They're for you.
Lincoln University Students’ Association are the people who make student life the best it can be. Independent from the university, they offer impartial advice and look after your student rights. LUSA is committed to the Treaty of Waitangi and they help represent our Māori students at Lincoln. Apart from that they organise awesome and affordable events from lunchtime sausage sizzles to the legendary end of year Garden Party.

Help is here.
Every student needs a little help now and then. That’s why we have support services for every area of student life. And they’re there for you whenever you need them. Whether it’s budgeting advice, help with a physical or mental health problem or you just want someone friendly to talk to, we’re on your side.

Helping international students.
For any international student, attending university in a foreign country can be a challenge to say the least. At Lincoln, we understand what you’re going through and have special support options to help you feel settled and at ease.

Great care for little ones.
Lincoln’s philosophy of helping people grow also extends to our fantastic childcare centres. We create an environment that promotes wonder and play as central to learning. Children of all cultures love it here, which makes it much easier for their parents to concentrate on studying.

Coffee or a cold one.
Where there are university students there are also cafés and bars. And in our case, they’re all well worth a visit or two. Whether you’re after a coffee to get your brain going or you’ve earned a beer after a busy day studying, there are plenty of places to grow your social life.

This way up.
Need a bit of pointing in the right direction? Talk to us for career and employment advice. From career possibilities to finding a part-time job while you study or for employers wanting to recruit students and graduates, we’re here and ready to help.
Great futures grow at Lincoln

We believe the secret to an outstanding future is planting the seeds of potential in the right place today. At Lincoln University, you’ll enjoy the perfect balance of credibility, experience and future-focus in a size that works to your advantage. Here are 9 of our favourite reasons why.

01. Our history. Your future.
As New Zealand’s economy grew more diverse, we kept pace. Today we are well placed to offer relevant learning options that draw from the past and give you the skills you need for tomorrow.

02. Collaboration.
Lincoln University collaborates with other teaching institutions and universities as well as research bodies, such as CIRs, and private sector companies, to ensure it is contributing effectively to New Zealand and providing relevant and work-ready graduates.

03. The grass is greener.
Rather than trying to stretch ourselves across everything, we put our resources into what we’re truly best at. Our history is land-based and that’s where our future lies. If yours does too, you’re on the right side of the fence at Lincoln.

04. A degree that works.
From Agribusiness to Landscape Architecture, Viticulture and Oenology to Tourism, Lincoln offers a wide range of degrees relevant for today and ready for tomorrow.

05. Keeping it sustainable.
Everything we do at Lincoln University is underpinned by a commitment to sustainability, whether that relates to the environment, business, food production or tourism. In 2020, we were ranked ninth of 290 institutions for our contributions to the United Nations Sustainable Development goal of zero hunger, scoring highly due to our research and graduates in agriculture*. Our many research centres focus on sustainability and land use for food production, as well as innovation and international development. We also co-hosted the 2020-2021 Aotearoa New Zealand Sustainability Series, which promotes the importance of taking collective action on the United Nations’ 17 Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs).

06. World’s 18th best small university.*
We’re footing it with the very best. Lincoln University is recognised around the world as an outstanding small university that delivers quality learning and achieves exceptional results.

07. Our doors are always open.
Our staff pride themselves on always being available to students. Our open-door policy is there to give you support and help you get the most from your studies.

08. We’re big on small.
We’re New Zealand’s smallest university and that’s a big advantage. You’ll enjoy a personal learning environment and much more face-time with lecturers. Plus, Lincoln’s village atmosphere creates a real sense of community and camaraderie between students.

09. 6% higher graduate employment.*
The working world knows we produce outstanding graduates. A degree from Lincoln opens doors and helps you to get your career going and growing.

*Level 7 qualification - 3 years post study.

Lincoln University Students’ Association (LUSA) are here to make your student experience at Lincoln the best it can be. With heaps of free food, activities, gigs, events, concerts and prizes throughout the year, plus great clubs and societies and of course the legendary end of year Garden Party, LUSA’s got you covered. With an Executive of elected students who govern the organisation, the team make sure they’re doing their best by students.

LUSA are on your side

Clubs and societies
Looking for great ways to meet new people, broaden your horizons and have some fun? Join a club! With over 30 clubs and societies at Lincoln, there’s something for everyone and it gives you the opportunity to join like-minded people and make new friends. LUSA can fill you in on what’s out there or even help you set up your own club if you’re not digging what’s on offer already.

Your LUSA representatives
LUSA loves seeing students getting involved in campus life and making their campus an awesome place to be. Every year, nine students are elected to form the LUSA Executive. This helps to ensure that our students are actively involved in making decisions around campus.

You’ll also have the opportunity to become a student rep, which involves giving feedback and support on all aspects of student life.

Drop by LUSA HQ or send them an email if there’s something you think could be better.

Student Job Search (SJS)
Welcome to the year-round job placement service for all tertiary students looking for work to help keep them afloat. SJS has a huge employer database, both of households and professional organisations that are always looking for students. LUSA can give you all the details and assistance on how to access their service.

Events
LUSA is your go to for events and a great student life whilst studying at Lincoln. They’re best known for the legendary end of year Garden Party, but also put on an epic Orientation as well as multiple smaller events throughout the year. Whatever you’re into, LUSA will have something for you. Get involved, follow their social media pages and make sure you get your tickets early, as events do sell out!

Personal help
LUSA is always working to help improve the student experience. So, if something less than awesome happens during your time at Lincoln, they can help you get back on your feet.

Financial Assistance Fund
Everyone knows it can be hard to make ends meet when you’re a student. LUSA administer a Financial Assistance Fund to assist students who are struggling financially. They can help you figure out the best way forward and support you through it. Don’t hesitate to drop in to LUSA to have a chat.

Student media
LUSA’s student magazine, RAM, is a student focused and led magazine with eight copies produced per year during term time. It is informal, conversational and expressive with great articles, quizzes, yarns, pics and much more to help you procrastinate from your studies.

Give LUSA a like on Facebook to follow its events and follow it on Instagram and Snapchat (@lusa.nz) to get involved in its spontaneous events and freebies.

Māori and Pasifika support

Lincoln is the first university to promote and commit to the consistent use of the Kāi Tahu dialect, as well as celebrate whānau, hapū and iwi mahika kai practices, research and innovation.

Māori Students
Nau mai, tauti mai ki Te Whare Wānaka o Aoraki.
Lincoln University is a great place for Māori students to gain an excellent qualification in a fun, friendly and supportive environment.

More than that, we’re committed to helping to develop the next generation of Māori leaders by offering industry-relevant, career-orientated programmes ranging from diplomas all the way to undergraduate and postgraduate degrees.

We have always been about harnessing the power of the land, and we understand how Māori land and primary sector assets are key economic resources for whānau, hapū, iwi and Māori communities.

Lincoln University has a comprehensive Māori Plan that seeks to enhance engagement with Māori communities to support student and staff aspirations, develop a culture of leadership amongst students and staff, develop a bicultural campus, contribute to the achievement of Māori research and learning outcomes and support and contribute to the Māori economy.

Māori have a growing multi-billion dollar economy and need a diverse, specialised workforce to manage their significant assets for future generations. Lincoln is able to support and grow those people.

We offer a values-based programme of manaaki (support) for Māori students. The programme is called Whanake Ake and offers academic support, internships and practical work opportunities.

Te Awhioraki
Te Awhioraki is an association that represents all Māori students on-campus and is managed and run by Māori students themselves. Te Awhioraki provides social, cultural and academic support to students during their stay at Lincoln. It also organises social events, wānaka and workshops which enhance and promote a Māori identity within the university.

Te Awhioraki works alongside the Lincoln University Students’ Association (LUSA) by advocating for students and providing them with an independent voice. Te Awhioraki has a seat on the University Council Committee responsible for Māori development (Ahumairaki) and LUSA Executive thereby providing a strong voice for Māori student issues.

Te Awhioraki is also a member of Te Mana Akonga (National Māori Students’ Association).

Pasifika Students
Kia orana, talofa lava, nisa bula vinaka, fakaalofa lahi atu, taloha ni, fakatalofa atu, halo oloketa.
Lincoln University has a longstanding association with the Pacific region and its communities which is supported by the Lincoln University Pacific Island Association on campus and external stakeholders as part of our Mutu Working Group. We aim to contribute to the educational and economic aspirations of Pacific people both within New Zealand and in the wider Pacific region.

Pasifika students are able to engage in cultural, sporting and social activities on campus supported by the Pasifika Support Coordinator and Te Manutaki - the Māori and Pasifika Team and our Pacific Islands Student Association (LUPISA).

Lincoln Overseas Exchange
Lincoln University students have been studying overseas as part of their degrees since 1975. LincOE offers the chance to broaden your knowledge of a discipline or to expand your knowledge into new disciplines that count as credits towards your degree, not to mention the worldliness that comes with being immersed in a new culture and society. It’s a once-in-a-lifetime experience to grow like never before.

With LincOE, you can do part of your degree overseas with a partner institution in Canada, Denmark, Finland, Germany, Indonesia, Ireland, Norway, Sweden, The Netherlands, Uruguay, United Kingdom or USA.

LincOE students reach the La Plata Peak Summit, Rocky Mountains, Colorado, USA.
The Copenhagen Business School in Denmark is just one of 18 overseas institutions that Lincoln students can study at across Canada, Europe, USA, South America, and Asia.

LincOE allows you to explore and study in another part of the world while crediting your overseas courses back to your Lincoln degree.

For more information pick up a copy of the LincOE Guide or visit www.lincoln.ac.nz/LincOE
Inclusive Education
If you have an injury, disability or illness, our on-campus Inclusive Education team is available to support you. They can help with:
• Providing a reader or writer to assist you during exams
• Arranging extra time for you to finish your assessments
• Offering general support during tests
• Providing special equipment that you might need during your studies.
Mobility parking is available on campus and we offer accommodation options that are suitable for students with a disability or injury.
All your health information will be kept confidential.

Student Health and Support
The staff at our on-campus Student Health and Support centre can help you in a variety of ways.
An experienced team of doctors and nurses work with other members of the team to support your health and well-being.
A highly-qualified clinical psychologist and counsellor are also available to guide you through any issues that may arise throughout the year. These could include coping with life on campus, adjusting to living in a new country, or balancing home, work or study.
If you have an illness, injury or disability that could affect your learning or formal assessments, our Inclusive Education staff can provide you with support strategies.
We recommend that you choose to enrol with Student Health and Support, as the centre belongs to a PHO (Partnership Health Canterbury), making healthcare much less expensive for you.

Learning, Teaching and Library (LTL)
The Learning, Teaching and Library team can help you to get the best out of your studies with learning support and access to an extensive collection of online and print resources.
They also provide a quiet place for you to study, either individually or as part of a group in a designated study space.
The team can equip you with a range of study techniques, including helping you to strengthen your writing, find resources, manage your research, enhance your learning and develop your career.
Additionally, they can assist with referencing and data.
You can find the Learning, Teaching and Library team on the ground floor of the iconic Ivey Hall building at the heart of campus.

Chaplaincy
Our team of campus chaplains provide emotional and spiritual support to all Lincoln students, regardless of their religious beliefs.
The chaplaincy team are available to offer a listening ear and a safe place to talk over personal, work or study concerns.
They can support you during times of crisis, stress and anxiety, as a result of grief, homesickness, loneliness, family and relationship concerns, employment issues and other challenging situations.
They can also facilitate dialogue between faith and academic disciplines, act as advocates and help with non-medical aegrotats.
The Chaplains operate a food bank service for students who need assistance.
The team organises a range of spiritual, social and cultural activities throughout the year, including English conversation classes, prayer and support, worship services and social outings.

Wellbeing
The wellbeing of the entire Lincoln whānau is one of our top priorities and there are plenty of support services available on campus.
Our dedicated on-campus wellbeing team work hard to deliver a broad range of initiatives aimed at keeping you happy and well during your time at Lincoln.
If you ever run into any mental health issues or emotional difficulties while you’re with us, you can always talk to someone from our wellbeing team.
Student Health and Support also offers counselling and LUSA has an advocacy service that can support you through any difficult issues.
We’re always working on ways to enhance our wellbeing programmes so you can rest assured that you’ll be well taken care of at Lincoln.
Areas of Specialisation
Primary production is the foundation of our national economy and that is truer now than ever. Demand for university graduates well exceeds supply and our students are sought-after across all areas of the sector.

As New Zealand’s leading agricultural university, we have a long history of supporting the land-based industries to increase their productivity and sustainability.

This trend is set to continue, with a 70 percent increase in global food production required by 2050 to feed an additional three billion people worldwide. Thousands of extra jobs will open up, with skyrocketing international demand for New Zealand exports such as meat, milk and wool. There’s never been a better time to enter the industry.

Our agriculture and horticulture programmes cover a wide range of disciplines, including biology, chemistry, and plant, animal and soil science, as well as management skills. The practical experiences we offer set us apart from other universities and prepare you to make an immediate difference to the industry.

Employment opportunities are wide-ranging, from farm and horticultural consultancy to rural banking and valuation careers, agribusiness roles, and working for the fertiliser, seed and livestock industries.

We also lead the way in viticulture, having established the first tertiary-level cool climate wine production programme in the English-speaking world. Our Centre for Viticulture and Oenology is a top research organisation designed to help increase the economic value of the New Zealand wine industry.

Many of our viticulture graduates are working in leading winemaking regions all over the globe, from Auckland to Wanaka, from Asia to the United States of America.

Our business programmes will open up a world of opportunities in the broad range of industries driving the New Zealand economy. These include areas as diverse as agri-food, tourism, property, farms and global value chains.

Many of our qualifications focus on agribusiness and the commercial considerations of the land-based industries. We also place a strong emphasis on understanding the global nature of value chains, which connect international markets, allowing you to bring the world to New Zealand and New Zealand to the world.

We tailor our degrees to the business sectors, giving you a strong understanding of the concepts and industry-specific knowledge valued by employers. Our programmes produce work-ready graduates with a unique combination of skills that allow them to easily find employment or run their own businesses.

The vast majority of our students move quickly into careers that are highly relevant to their degrees. Many secure jobs by the start of their third year of study and a large number of employers visit us specifically to recruit business graduates.

Our real-world examples and practical experiences will give you the skills to make an immediate difference in your chosen business career.

Studying environment with us means understanding the big picture in terms of sustainability, as well as focusing on some of the most complex issues facing the world today.

Our environmental graduates are in major demand, with many opportunities for well-paid employment in areas such as policy development, planning and impact assessment.

More and more companies are choosing to operate sustainably and minimise their impact on the environment, while raised environmental awareness and demand for greener production have increased employment opportunities in non-environmental industries.

Additionally, public and political interest in environmental issues, such as concerns over water allocation and climate change, is creating more opportunities for employment in environmental management.

At Lincoln, you’ll learn from some of the best researchers and lecturers in the field and gain access to the most up-to-date industry knowledge, which is very attractive to a broad range of employers.

Throughout the world, people are faced with an ever-widening range of serious concerns such as resource depletion, pollution of air and water, and global warming. Decisions made now will have implications on the sustainability of the natural environment and on economic, social and cultural development.

Our food, wine and beer courses will help to prepare you for fulfilling careers all over the world.

The food science and innovation programmes allow you to explore the latest ideas and knowledge, from ingredients, nutrition, processing and engineering, all the way through to the development of new food products, including formulation and commercialisation.

Meanwhile, Agribusiness and Food Marketing teaches a savvy approach to food production that focuses on balancing finite resources and a growing global population with consumers’ increasing demand for high-quality products.

Alternatively, you could prepare for entry into the wine sector, with programmes that have been instrumental in developing the highly successful New Zealand wine industry.

We’re also home to the only single-semester beer brewing course in New Zealand. This offers an invaluable opportunity to enter a growing sector and gain the in-depth knowledge required for career success.

If you’re interested in organics, our one-year Diploma in Organic Agri-Food Production can prepare you for employment or entrepreneurial work in the sector. The programme focuses on sustainability in the context of tikaka (Māori customs).

We offer plenty of opportunities for practical work, from group projects in the lab, to individual assignments at private companies. Our degrees are highly rated by industry, as they produce graduates with the practical skills that employers are looking for.

Landscape Architecture

Landscape architecture uses a combination of science and art to create outdoor spaces that promote better ways of living.

There's a huge industry demand for landscape architects. The New Zealand market is growing quickly as more businesses realise the invaluable qualities that landscape architecture principles can bring to a project.

In 1969, we founded New Zealand's first professional landscape architecture qualification in the field. When you attend our internationally recognised School of Landscape Architecture, you'll work with some of the world's leading practitioners on a broad mix of design, ecology, planning, field tours and real world projects.

You'll enjoy a dedicated space on campus with beautifully designed studios, room to install equipment, and space to lay out plans for design work and model construction so that you can develop your creativity to its fullest potential.

Our landscape architecture graduates are sought after all over the world because of the experience they gain during their studies. They're viewed by industry as the cream of the crop and are able to immediately begin successful careers after graduating.

We can introduce you to networking opportunities and help you to develop a strong professional ethos.

Qualifications
- Bachelor of Landscape Architecture
- Bachelor of Landscape Architecture (Graduate Entry)
- Bachelor of Landscape Architecture with Honours
- Master of Landscape Architecture (Research)
- Master of Landscape Architecture (Taught)
- PhD

Property & Valuation

Our comprehensive property programme has wide accreditation by professional bodies, highlighting its leading position in New Zealand.

We have been teaching property for 80 years and are highly regarded by the industry.

You'll work with some of the most experienced lecturers in the field, and gain access to up-to-date knowledge from industry professionals, who also deliver parts of the programme.

The sector employs a huge number of Lincoln graduates. In fact, our Bachelor of Land and Property Management programme has a 100% employment rate, as the courses are highly relevant to the sector and allow you to gain applied skills during required periods of practical work.

Additionally, our close ties with a huge range of businesses and professionals, many of them Lincoln graduates, mean you can form valuable connections during your studies.

We'll provide you with the ability to make important decisions in both the urban and rural property fields — decisions that benefit businesses, consumers, society and the environment.

Best of all, every country is made up of properties that need to be managed and valued, so a property degree can take you all over the world.

Qualifications
- Bachelor of Land & Property Management (Urban Valuation & Property Management major)
- Bachelor of Land & Property Management (Rural Valuation major)
- Graduate Diploma in Property Management
- Graduate Diploma in Valuation
- PhD
Science

Our science programmes will prepare you to contribute to the sustainable management of land, water, air and the country’s abundant natural resources.

There’s a lot of demand for Lincoln science graduates in many industries, particularly areas such as agriculture, food science, environment and conservation.

Across all science disciplines, we use real-world examples and practical experiences to give you the skills to make an immediate difference in your chosen field.

Hands-on learning opportunities with leading scientists and industry professionals will get you a foot in the door as far as career options are concerned and the skills we teach are attractive to many employers.

Our strong research presence offers a broad world view of how science can be used to solve real problems, while our course content is highly focused, providing both theoretical and practical knowledge.

As our world changes, we need highly skilled individuals who can tackle the big issues. How do we create healthy foods from new ingredients that meet consumer expectations for sustainability? How do we protect our environment from biological threats? How do we maintain good environmental quality?

We are working hard to address these problems and as a Lincoln Bachelor of Science graduate, you can join us in our mission.

Sport & Recreation

You can turn your love of sport and recreation into a career? Practical course content, friendly lecturers and connections with various organisations, which will give you a foot in the door before you complete your studies.

A degree in this area from Lincoln can open up a world of career opportunities in an exciting and fast-moving industry. The sector desperately needs more graduates and we offer a wider range of sport and recreation subjects than any other New Zealand university.

The career opportunities are diverse, from working in non-profit or professional sporting organisations to forging a career in outdoor recreation, public health, or the management of sports events and facilities.

The market value of the sector in New Zealand is estimated at more than $5 billion, with gains in productivity and health benefits valued at over $1 billion.

We’ll supplement your practical experiences with a theoretical knowledge of sport and society, governance, event and people management, and issues associated with managing community parks and sport and recreation services.

Our industry partners are well aware of the value of our programmes. Many organisations have hired Lincoln graduates and found them to be immediately work-ready, a quality that is supremely attractive to employers.

Tourism

There has never been a more exciting time to become a tourism professional. The sector is changing dramatically and will continue to do so over the next few years. Studying for a tourism degree now will put you at the forefront of this change and allow you to contribute to growing a more sustainable industry.

University-educated tourism professionals continue to be in great demand, so a degree will help you to stand out from the crowd when seeking employment.

Our graduates are highly regarded by the sector, as they enter the job market with well-rounded tourism experience and have a strong grasp of the industry as a whole, from insights to practical applications.

We enjoy a close relationship with the sector, particularly as far as research programmes are concerned, so you’ll have many opportunities to form valuable connections before you even finish your studies.

When you begin your career, you will be thoroughly prepared to hit the ground running, giving you the confidence you need to make an immediate difference to the industry.

Programmes
Our Programmes

Bachelor’s degrees
We offer a range of specialist undergraduate degrees that will prepare you for a great career.

Many of our courses include a practical work component, for more information please see page 59.

Bachelor of Agribusiness and Food Marketing
The Bachelor of Agribusiness and Food Marketing will equip you with a sound applied knowledge of core business concepts and the unique commercial considerations of the multi-billion dollar primary production industry.

Bachelor of Agriculture
The Bachelor of Agriculture uses real world examples and practical experiences to produce graduates who can make a difference in jobs across all areas of agricultural production and related industries.

Bachelor of Agricultural Science
Agricultural production is critical to feeding the world’s population. The Bachelor of Agricultural Science will teach you how to help farmers and primary producers meet the requirements of international markets, with an expectation for food to be traceable from paddock to plate.

Bachelor of Commerce
Our industry-relevant Bachelor of Commerce has a specific focus on value chains. Value chains connect the world, and so do our graduates.

Choose from one of seven majors:
- Accounting and Finance
- Food and Resource Economics
- Global Business
- Hotel and Tourism Management
- Individual
- Marketing
- Supply Chain Management

Bachelor of Commerce (Agriculture)
The Bachelor of Commerce (Agriculture) is a specialised, industry-based degree that will prepare you for leadership in both the farming and agribusiness sectors.

Bachelor of Commerce (Agriculture and Professional Accounting)
This four-year degree includes components of our three-year Bachelor of Commerce (Agriculture) and accredited Bachelor of Commerce Major in Accounting and Finance. Open the door to career opportunities in farm advisory and professional accounting roles in the rural sector.

Bachelor of Commerce (Horticulture)
Prepare to become a business leader in the horticultural and food industries and meet a strong demand for professionals who can cater to increasing global pressure for high-quality food. The Bachelor of Commerce (Horticulture) will give you the skills and knowledge to pursue a career in an all-important management or advisory role.

Bachelor of Environment and Society
The Bachelor of Environment and Society will prepare you to tackle the big issues around how we live on the planet. Resources are dwindling and the population is growing, creating increasing pressure on food security, fresh water, ecosystems and indigenous culture. How do we increase productivity in the land-based industries while reducing negative impacts on the environment?

Bachelor of Environmental Management
The Bachelor of Environmental Management will give you the skills to distinguish between environmental policy and planning principles, methods and tools and apply them in varying contexts, from the city streets to rural land.

Bachelor of Environmental Policy and Planning
The Bachelor of Environmental Policy and Planning provides the knowledge and tools to critically discuss topical and enduring global issues so that you can learn to better manage the environment in a range of contexts.

Bachelor of Land and Property Management
Our Bachelor of Land and Property Management is the most comprehensive property-focused degree in Australasia. You can study an urban or rural specialisation, or both — or combine property studies with an additional area of focus such as accounting, finance, investment, planning, environmental management, geomatics or marketing. We call this ‘property plus’. There is also the possibility of spending a semester or two at a university overseas.

Bachelor of Landscape Architecture
The Bachelor of Landscape Architecture is taught by the School of Landscape Architecture – the longest-established school of its kind in New Zealand and staffed by internationally-acclaimed academics. The BLA is accredited by the New Zealand Institute of Landscape Architects (NZILA), meaning graduates are eligible to become registered professionals.

Bachelor of Science
Create your own science major in an area that is key to New Zealand’s economy.

Choose from one of four majors:
- Conservation and Ecology
- Food Science
- Environmental Science
- Individual

Focus on soil, water and biology in a connected landscape context to understand how land use affects the environment and the best practices for mitigating these effects.

Food Science
Develop an in-depth knowledge of a subject that is key to New Zealand’s economy.

Individual
Create your own science major in an area such as biochemistry, genetics, animal science or plant science.
Bachelor of Sport and Recreation Management
This degree has been developed with the assistance of employers. It recognises the need for graduates to possess applied skills in sport and recreation management, together with skills in critical thinking and demonstrated academic competency.

Bachelor of Tourism Management
The future of tourism has changed completely, with the sector expected to undergo a total transformation over the next few years. University graduates will be urgently needed to help lead this regeneration.

Bachelor of Viticulture and Oenology
We developed the first cool climate wine production programme in the English-speaking world, and we’ve been leading the way ever since. Our Bachelor of Viticulture and Oenology degree will prepare you for fulfilling a role in the wine sector.

Additional majors
Studying for a bachelor’s degree will prepare you for fulfilling a career in the wine sector.

Postgraduate study
We offer a wide range of postgraduate study options, including:
- Graduate Certificates and Diplomas
- Postgraduate Certificates and Diplomas
- Honour’s degrees
- Master’s degrees
- PhDs.

Diploma in Commerce (Level 5)
The Diploma in Commerce allows you to complete courses from the Bachelor of Commerce programme and choose electives from any of the other bachelor’s degrees. Study options include areas such as accounting, business management, computing, e-commerce, economics, finance, international business, marketing, property studies and supply chain management.

Diploma in Horticulture (Level 5)
The Diploma in Horticulture will introduce you to a broad range of topics associated with horticultural technology, production and management. The diploma covers computing, propagation, horticultural management system, soils, plants studies and engineering.

Undergraduate diplomas
We offer a variety of specialist diplomas that will give you a solid grounding in your chosen subject. Learn the marketable skills you need to broaden your career options or move on to a more in-depth study programme.

Diploma in Agriculture (Level 5)
The Diploma in Agriculture is designed to enhance your agricultural and farm management knowledge in preparation for working in a professional environment. The programme covers farm management, associated husbandries and the physical and financial aspects of business planning.

Diploma in Applied Science (Level 6)
The Diploma in Applied Science will provide you with basic competency in a range of areas of science. It’s an appropriate foundation for further training in any branch of the natural sciences.

Diploma in Horticulture (Level 5)

There's nothing like living in a friendly village atmosphere to help you thrive and that's exactly what you'll find with our on-campus accommodation.

The Lincoln campus is home to around 600 students during the university year and you can choose between catered Halls of Residence, self-catered flats or houses. Students living on campus say it's a fantastic way to enjoy their time at Lincoln. You'll make friends for life, there's always something fun going on and you're just a short walk away from lectures, gym, shops, cafés and bars.

If living off campus is more your style, regular bus services to and from central Christchurch make that easy too. Lincoln, Riccarton and Rolleston are popular locations for student flats because of their convenience and buzzing student community.
Accommodation at Lincoln

Halls
There are six fully-catered Halls of Residence all centrally located. If you want to live in a particular hall, just specify this on your application and we’ll do our best to give you your first choice. You don’t need to fill out a separate application for each hall. Living in this community allows you to focus on the transition into university life while having all your needs taken care of such as meals, safety and security, events and pastoral care. Residential Assistants will be there for your whole stay to guide and support you.

Flats
The three self-catered flat options are the Crescent, Farm Road and the Junction. They are a great option for students from second year and above, offering independent living. The flats also have Residential Assistants, organised events, sports, security and support when needed. Flats have four or five rooms and you can tell us who you want to room with or we’ll match you up.

Houses
We have a limited number of campus houses which range from two–four bedrooms. These houses are ideal for students with families and are in high demand. Please talk directly to the Accommodation Office to be considered for a house.

Renting
If you’re ready to strike out on your own, you’re in a great part of the world to do it. There are plenty of excellent houses available for rent in Lincoln and around Christchurch city. Just head over to the Lincoln Flats Facebook page and see what suits you.

Homestays
If you’re an international student or you just prefer a family living environment, a homestay could be perfect for you. We can help you find just the right place where you’ll live a real Kiwi life with a real Kiwi family.

01.
Centennial Hall, Fully-catered.
Centennial Hall opened in 1978 (the year of Lincoln University’s centenary). Its five double-storey buildings are just a two-minute stroll from the dining hall and the heart of Lincoln campus. The rooms are spread over two floors and laid out in pods of six. Each pod has a kitchenette, toilet and two showers. There’s also a separate communal lounge and laundry for all Centennial residents. A ground floor pod offers disabled access and bathroom facilities.

02.
Stevens Hall, Fully-catered.
Opened in 1970, Stevens Hall includes two three-storey blocks with rooms laid out in pods of six. Each pod has a kitchenette, toilet and shower. A communal lounge and laundry are located on the ground floor.

03.
Quarters, Fully-catered.
Built in 2016, The Quarters are spread over two single-storey buildings. Each has 10 rooms, three bathrooms, a communal kitchen and common room, plus a study zone. Each communal space features sliding doors and a deck. It’s modern, functional and centrally located.

04.
Southland Hall, Fully-catered.
Southland Hall was opened in 1993. Just a short walk from the centre of the campus, it’s made up of two blocks, and rooms are laid out in pods of six. Each pod has a kitchenette, toilet and two showers. A communal lounge is in a separate building.
05/06. Lowrie Hall & Colombo Hall. Fully-catered.

Opened in 1970, Lowrie Hall and Colombo Hall are located next to each other and are identical. They consist of three four-storey blocks with four pods. Each pod has a shower and toilet, and the communal lounge, TV room and kitchen are on the ground floor.

The Junction is made up of six modern units constructed in 2016. These flats consist of five bedrooms, a lounge, a kitchen, a laundry and two bathrooms. They are fully furnished so all you need to bring are your clothes and personal items.

08. Crescent Units. Self-catered.

The Crescent was Lincoln’s very first self-catered accommodation, opening in 1972. It features 16 four-bedroom units, all single storey with their own lounge, kitchen and bathroom facilities. The units are fully-furnished, from beds and desks through to kitchen utensils.

09. Farm Road Units. Self-catered.

Farm Road has 18 four-bedroom, single storey units with their own lounge, kitchen and bathroom facilities. The units are fully-furnished, with beds and desks through to kitchen utensils. There is one unit with disabled access. Built in 1975, the units were refurbished in 1990 and again in 2009. In 2021, we opened two new five-bedroom, self-catered units. Each of these bedrooms has its own ensuite bathroom.

Stay in the halls in your first year. I just look at all of the friends I’m in contact with now and most of them came from that first year in the halls at Lincoln.
Accommodation A-Z

Accommodation Team.
The administration staff are here to help you with general enquiries, bookings and payments. You can find them in the Accommodation Office. The residential team are there to look after you and make sure your experience at Lincoln University is great by offering events, sports, activities, support and pastoral care.

Bedding Pack.
If you are staying in a hall or flat you can either bring your own bedding or purchase a pack, which will include a mattress protector, pillow, sheets, pillowcase, duvet cover and inner, towel and bathmat.

Campus Security.
We want you to feel safe and secure living on campus so our team carry out regular patrols 24 hours a day, seven days a week. Every bedroom is lockable and all the halls have controlled entry and camera systems. To add to that, Residential Assistants live on-site and work with the night staff to provide a safe environment.

Cleaning.
Shared spaces in the halls are cleaned twice weekly by our cleaning team and fortnightly in the self-catered flats. You are responsible for cleaning your own room. Cleaning equipment is available to all students in the halls and flats.

Dining Hall – Te Kete Ika.
If you’re living in catered accommodation you’ll enjoy buffet style meals for breakfast, lunch and dinner. There’s always plenty of choice and the weekend brunches are legendary. They cater for many special dietary requirements. If you live in the flats you can still pay individually for meals if you need a night off cooking!

Facilities and Services.
There are so many great services and facilities on campus such as the Recreation Centre and Student Health and Support. Just a short walk away there are shops, bars, cafes and a bank.

Insurance.
It’s important to consider insurance to cover your personal possessions. Talk to your insurance company about costs.

IT.
The halls and flats have a free wireless network. You get 200GB of free data per semester and you can buy more at the Accommodation Office for a reasonable price.

Lincoln Village.
Our campus is located in Lincoln township, a thriving village on the Canterbury Plains. Lincoln is small and friendly, boasting local pubs, great cafes and eateries, shops and even its own farmers and craft market. The Canterbury region offers a plethora of attractions, activities and natural wonders, from snowy mountains and wide-open plains to the stunning coastline. And when you feel like a weekend on the slopes, it’s less than two hours’ drive to the nearest ski field.

LUSA.
The Lincoln University Students’ Association (LUSA) provides representation and support for students. It also organises events and coordinates clubs and sports groups to keep you busy throughout the year.

Mail.
Mail and parcels are delivered to the university every weekday and students can access mail at the Accommodation Office.

Parking.
Parking on campus is free and there are lots of residential car parks at Lincoln. Only registered vehicles can use the halls’ car park areas. Just register your vehicle at the beginning of the year and you’re sorted.

Payment Options.
Coming up with a lump sum payment can be a challenge, so there are several payment options that you can select when you accept the placement offer.

Residential Assistants (RAs).
RAs are responsible for looking out for the physical, academic and emotional wellbeing of the residents, as well as helping to organise and host social and sporting events. They live on campus and are your first port-of-call. They’re trained in first aid, listening skills and they know all the tips on life at Lincoln.

Social Programme.
Being part of the community that lives on campus is a unique experience. You will make lifelong friends and have the time of your life. The dedicated team will plan a year’s worth of activities from themed parties to inter-hall sports competitions.

Your Room.
every room in the halls and flats has a single or kingsingle bed, desk and storage facilities. Students are responsible for their own laundry and keeping their rooms tidy.
Budgeting and applying for accommodation

Budgeting

Living independently can be costly. Whether you choose to live on campus, privately board or flat, it’s a good idea to start budgeting early. If you choose to flat you need to allow enough for costs such as transport, power, wifi and a bond.

2022 Pricing

The cost of accommodation in the halls and flats is based on a full academic year (39 weeks). Fees are released for 2022 in August so please check the website for up-to-date fees and associated costs.

2021 Pricing

The table below outlines prices for 2021. We’ve included the estimated living costs for off-campus options for you to compare.

Many of our programmes have a practical work component. It’s considered a crucial aspect of study for some courses and offers experiences in a broad range of relevant careers. You’ll normally carry out practical work during summer breaks and it will be closely linked to the lecture material in your study programme. While it’s your responsibility to find practical work placements, the Practical Work Coordinator can help by putting you in touch with employers who are already connected with us. You’re strongly encouraged to seek out a diverse range of practical work opportunities.

Why practical work?

Practical work will:

- Complement your studies and enhance the marketability of your qualification
- Give you a chance to experience new learning environments
- Expose you to the appropriate industry environment, including its technical, economic and social environments
- Teach you to perform a range of tasks specific to the industry environment including skills in observation, information gathering, data analysis, and report writing
- Equip you with more knowledge of industry employment opportunities.

Programmes that include practical work:

- Bachelor of Agribusiness and Food Marketing
- Bachelor of Commerce (Horticulture)
- Bachelor of Agriculture
- Bachelor of Agricultural Science
- Bachelor of Commerce (Hotel and Tourism Management Major)
- Bachelor of Commerce (Agriculture)
- Bachelor of Commerce (Agriculture and Professional Accounting)
- Bachelor of Landscape Architecture
- Bachelor of Land and Property Management
- Bachelor of Sport and Recreation Management*
- Bachelor of Viticulture and Oenology

* This course contains practical work through RECN 393 and is not run through the Practical Work office.

Go beyond textbooks and the classroom and enjoy a range of practical learning opportunities as part of your degree.
Am I eligible for Lincoln?

There are specific requirements for certificates and diplomas, undergraduate and postgraduate qualifications, as well as scholarships. You will also need to demonstrate that your English is proficient enough to study towards one of our degrees.

Bachelor's Degree Entry Requirements

Learn what you’ll need to supply to meet our entry criteria for an undergraduate degree. There are several ways you can qualify for a bachelor’s degree or undergraduate diploma.

University Entrance through NCEA

New Zealand’s University Entrance qualification is the minimum requirement to qualify for admission to a bachelor’s degree or to some of our diplomas:

- NCEA level 3 (i.e. a minimum of 60 credits at level 3 or above plus 20 credits at level 2 or above), and
- A minimum of 14 credits at level 3 or higher in each of three approved subjects; and
- Literacy – 5 reading credits and 5 writing credits at Level 2 or higher from standards on the NZQA list of university entrance literacy standards; and
- Numeracy – 10 credits from standards on the NZQA list of numeracy standards, or all three of the following unit standards: 26623, 26626, 26627.

For detailed and up-to-date information about the approved subject list and the university entrance literacy and numeracy requirements, go to the New Zealand Qualifications Authority (NZQA).

Special Admission (20+)

Any New Zealand citizen or permanent resident who will be 20 years old on or before the first day of the semester when they want to begin their programme may be granted Special Admission.

You may need to submit a CV and personal statement outlining the reason why you want to apply for the programme and how it will help you to achieve your career goals.

Admission ad eundem statum with credit

Students transferring from another tertiary institution should apply for admission with credit. Credit is awarded to recognise the quality, nature, level and achievement of previous study taken at recognised tertiary institutions. Transferred credit can contribute to the total credit required to complete a Lincoln qualification and enable students to access courses at higher levels.

Please apply for credits on the website using the Credit Application form and send it to the Student Administration office along with an official copy of your academic record. A credit assessment is free, however if credit is approved, there is a fee to have this credit placed on your academic record.

• University of Cambridge International Examinations (CIE) in New Zealand, achieving all of the following:
  - 120 points on the UCAS tariff
  - A minimum grade of D at AS level or higher in at least three syllabus groups equivalent to NCEA approved subjects
  - A minimum grade of D in Math at IGCSE level or the required NCEA credits.
  - International Baccalaureate (IB) and completed the Diploma with a minimum of 24 points, with English as Language A1 at either Higher or Standard level and any Mathematics subject.
  - Other qualifications from other countries are listed on our website.

Discretionary Entrance

New Zealand citizens and permanent residents who are under 20 and have not otherwise gained a University Entrance qualification may be eligible to apply for Discretionary Entrance. A student who has been enrolled as a Year 13 student beyond 1 June at a New Zealand secondary school is not normally eligible to be admitted through Discretionary Entrance before July of the following year.

The decision to grant Discretionary Entrance is made by designated members of the university’s academic staff. Successful applicants would be expected to have a minimum of 80 credits at NCEA Level 2 over four approved subjects, and the literacy and numeracy standards required for University Entrance. The number of credits achieved with merit and excellence will also be taken into account. We may require support from the principal of your school and we would expect that the study you had taken was highly relevant to your proposed study at Lincoln.

Important (read this)

If requested, applicants must provide acceptable verified proof of identification and citizenship.

New Zealand citizenship

- Birth certificate, if you were born in New Zealand
- New Zealand passport
- Certificate of New Zealand Citizenship

New Zealand Permanent Residence

- Passport with a Residence Permit or Returning Resident’s Visa
- A letter from Immigration New Zealand together with your passport (if your permit has not yet been issued).
Costs and scholarships

How much is it going to cost?
University study is quite an investment, so it’s important to make the right choice about what to study. The average price of tuition fees for domestic students is between $5,500 and $7,000 per year.
At Lincoln, each individual course attracts a fee based on the degree area and level of course. Your actual fee will depend on the mix of courses you take. If you plan to take a mixture of courses for your undergraduate degree, you’ll need to calculate the courses separately.

Are there other expenses?
Other non-tuition fees include:
• Student Services levy
• Textbooks, course readers and stationery
• Costs such as printing, photography, field trips
• Optional extras (like parking)
• Living costs and accommodation.

Scholarships
Keen to study at Lincoln University but not sure you can afford it? There are literally hundreds of scholarships that could help cover your costs. Each one has its own eligibility criteria. You can apply for any number of scholarships as long as you meet the eligibility criteria for each (if you already have a scholarship, check the regulations to see if you can hold another).
There are a small number of scholarships available for international students. In most cases Australian citizens are deemed to be New Zealand residents for the purposes of scholarship. We’re good like that.

Sports Scholarships? Game on
For teaming academic success with sporting development, Lincoln is dedicated to being your first choice. Every year we offer a select few students the opportunity to gain a world-class academic qualification while developing their sporting prowess to a professional level.
As a Lincoln sports scholar the value of your scholarship is $6,000. You’ll be part of our specialist athlete education and benefit from a full range of support services under our complete athlete management system.
The Lincoln University Sports Scholarship was established in 1999. It was the first of its kind in New Zealand and has produced some of the country’s most well-known and internationally successful sportspeople.
We look forward to helping you become one of them.

Future leader? Follow us
Leaders aren’t always born, in fact they usually develop. Today as much as ever, the worlds of science, business, technology, politics and community rely on great leadership to prosper.
Lincoln’s Future Leader Scholarship Programme will give you the ability to tackle any leadership appointment.
Each year, students who act as leaders in their school or community are offered the opportunity to develop their leadership skills, knowledge and understanding while also studying at Lincoln University.
You’ll be part of our comprehensive extension and development programme. The value of this scholarship is $6,000.

Māori and Pasifika Scholarships
Lincoln has a range of scholarships for Māori and Pasifika students to support them in achieving their aspirations for their whenua, whānau, hapū and iwi.
In addition to Māori and Pasifika accommodation scholarships, Lincoln introduced scholarships in 2018 to assist Māori and Pasifika students passionate about agriculture, science, tourism, Mātauraka Māori including mahika kai, and to support students pathwaying up from other tertiary providers.
These complement the Sir Turi Carroll Scholarships for Māori student leaders which were initiated in 2013.

And more (a lot more)
Wherever your potential lies, there’s sure to be a grant that can help you realise it. Hundreds of grants, allowances and scholarships are now available.

Most of our undergraduate bachelor’s degree students go directly into the first year of their degree. But there are many more options and study levels. You might want to upgrade your academic skills or English language ability. Or perhaps you want a one-year course to lead straight into a particular career. Whichever it is, we’ve got all your bases covered.

After you’ve successfully cracked it and got your degree in the bag, you might decide you’ve really got a taste for this study business. At that point you could go on to postgraduate study and become hugely specialised and vastly learned in your field. Postgraduate qualifications include diplomas and certificates, honours degrees, master’s degrees, and PhDs.

What level of study best suits me? Where do I want it to take me? Can I do it? Answer these questions and you’re well on the way to finding the right courses for you at Lincoln.

Need a bit of planning help? If you’re stuck on what to study or need to chat about anything to do with planning your degree, Lincoln’s Student Liaison team can help.

It starts with a plan

A three-year degree could look like this.

Courses are offered at different levels. Students start with courses at 100 level. These are sometimes referred to as “first year courses” but can be taken in other years. They generally prepare you for studying courses at the 200 and 300 levels, which are usually taken in your second and third years of study.

How a semester works.

The university year is split into two semesters and usually has a two-week break in the middle. At the end of each semester there’s a one-week study break, followed by two weeks for exams. Each semester usually looks like this:

Workload.

For every course, you’ll need to complete four to five hours of contact time a week. Contact time includes lectures, laboratories and tutorials (16–20 hours a week). You are also expected to complete four to five hours of study per week, per course (16–20 hours).

This adds up to about 40 hours per week. This may be useful to consider if you need to work while studying.

As a full-time student you will normally study four courses a semester. Each course is usually equal to 15 credits, and you need a total of 360 credits for a three-year degree.
